

CPHVA ANNUAL PROFESSIONAL
CONFERENCE & EXHIBITION 2005

Call For Papers

The CPHVA 2005 Conference will focus on working together in the community and public health.

Presentations will explore:

- Collaborative working across professional and agency boundaries
- Working together to meet the needs of specific populations such as the elderly, children and families, or marginalised groups
- Working in partnerships with people, groups and communities
- Education and development to support inter-professional and inter-agency learning and working
- Promoting equality and diversity thorough collaborative practice
- Research to underpin practice development and to contribute new knowledge or new perspectives to community and public health practice
- The implementation of research into practice and the use of research to provide evidence of effectiveness

The CPHVA welcomes papers from a broad range of agencies, professionals and users in community care and public health.

How to submit your abstract?

Visit <http://profile.conferences-services.net>

To access submission forms, click on 'submit an abstract'. You will be asked to register as a new user, the relevant documents will then be sent to you by email. Follow the instructions on the website in order to submit the form.

Please indicate on the application form if you are submitting a research paper. These will be selected according to agreed criteria available online or with the conference

10th - 12th November
Bournemouth International Centre

Deadline for submission is March 15th 2005

For any further information please contact Heather Eade at Profile Productions on 0208 832 7303 or email heather.eade@profileproductions.co.uk

PROFILE
PRODUCTIONS